

Append - Privacy Policy

By Jordan Siaw

How We Collect and Use Information

Google Drive

Append performs reads on your Google Drive data to display the spreadsheet picker in the app's Settings page. When you log into your Google account in Append, you will be shown exactly what permissions Append will use. You can accept or decline these permissions as you see fit.

Google Sheets

Append performs reads on your Google Sheets data to display the sheet picker and the entry form in the app's New Entry page and Settings page respectively. Append performs writes on your Google Sheets data to submit the form in the app's New Entry page. When you log into your Google account in Append, you will be shown exactly what permissions Append will use. You can accept or decline these permissions as you see fit.

Append only uses your login info to authenticate with Google. This info is not used anywhere else.
